

Glasgow Women's Library would love you to attend this unmissable evening of luscious food, sparkling company and quality entertainment.

Auction of Pleasures

A Dinner and Auction to raise funds for Glasgow Women's Library's refurbishment of their new home at the Mitchell Library.

Friday 17 September 2010 at St Andrew's in the Square , 6pm to 11pm
£45 per person or £400 per table (10 people)

The Auction of Pleasures will be a memorable, magical evening within a stunning venue. At the heart of the night will be the opportunity to bid on imaginative gifts, adventures, treasures and treats that excite and please the senses. From bespoke garments, year-round culinary delights and truly fine artworks by groundbreaking women artists, an array of auction items will be on offer that are designed to tempt and delight whatever your pleasure.

Make sure you add your name to the guest list of remarkable women (and men!) of achievement in Scotland who will be in attendance and book your place now.
