

Hidden Gems of Garnethill

Glasgow Women's Library present a Women Make History
Women's Heritage Walking Tour

ROSE
STREET
GARNETHILL

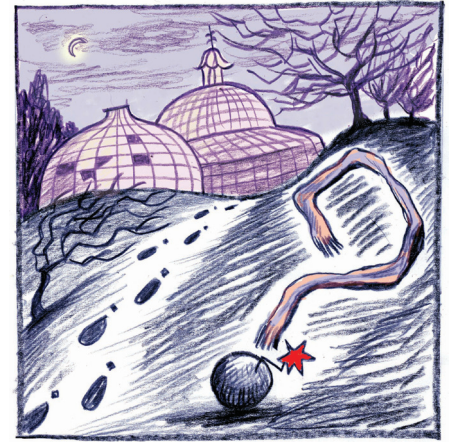

Sunday 12 June 2011 at 2pm, tickets £7.50 in advance from www.womenslibrary.org.uk or direct from the library at 15 Berkeley Street, Glasgow G3 7BW.

As part of the West End Festival join a Women Make History walking tour within Garnethill's confined boundaries that spotlights the women who pioneered European art movements, designed the banners for suffragette processions, created the first (and only) women's library in Scotland and made Garnethill into the most exciting cultural and multicultural hotspot in Glasgow. The walk lasts approximately 1.5 hours, sensible walking shoes recommended.

West End Women's Heritage Silent Walk

Sunday 19 June 2001, 2pm to 4pm (Q & A starts at 3.30pm in Kelvingrove Museum)

Glasgow Women's Library has made history again with this unique opportunity to be one of the first people to experience a silent women's heritage walk in Glasgow with a Q&A with the stars of the podcast at the end.

Visit <http://history.womenslibrary.org.uk> to download a copy of the podcast that reveals a hidden history of the West End for just £3. Bring your MP3 or MP4 device with the podcast saved and gather at the start point of Kelvingrove Museum and Art Gallery (front courtyard) look out for the gwL logo lolipop for other silent walkers. Then you can all set off, following the walk at your own pace, meeting up with other members of the group at points along the way. Gather for Q&A with the stars of the podcast in the Kelvingrove Coffee Shop at 3.30pm.
